102.1 – CREATION OF THE UTAH SYSTEM OF TECHNICAL COLLEGES (USTC)

The Utah College of Applied Technology was created by the Utah State Legislature through H.B. 1003 (Applied Technology Education Governance), First Special Session of the 2001 Legislature. The effective date of the enactment was September 1, 2001. The original bill was amended by the Utah State Legislature through H.B. 232 (Utah College of Applied Technology Amendments), General Session of the 2003 Legislature. The effective date of the amendment was July 1, 2003. The original bill was again amended by the Utah State Legislature through H.B. 86 (Utah College of Applied Technology Amendments), General Session of the 2005 Legislature. The effective date of the amendment was May 2, 2005. The original bill was again amended by the Utah State Legislature through H.B. 15 (Career and Technical Education Amendments), General Session of the 2009 Legislature. The effective date of the enactment was July 1, 2009.

Senate Bill 238 (Higher Education Governance Changes) renamed the Utah College of Applied Technology (UCAT) to Utah System of Technical Colleges; changes the name of Bridgerland Applied Technology College to Bridgerland Technical College, effective July 1, 2017.

The current law as amended is listed below.
